

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

EXECUTIVE ORDER W-107-94

WHEREAS, Executive Order W-56-93, issued on June 30, 1993, prohibited the hiring of new State employees; and

WHEREAS, in response to the State's continuing critical fiscal emergency;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PETE WILSON, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby issue this order to become effective immediately:

1. All State agencies and departments, regardless of funding source, are prohibited from filling vacancies that would constitute a new hire to State Government.
2. The provisions of this Executive Order shall not apply to the legislative and judicial branches of government. However, I invite these branches of government to participate.
3. The University of California and the California State University System are requested to comply with the provisions of this Executive Order. Participation, however, should be limited to a level that will not preclude these public higher education systems from providing their general education requirement.
4. Unless otherwise modified by the Department of Personnel Administration or the Department of Finance, the provisions of Management Memo 94-17 shall remain in effect during the term of this Executive Order.
5. The provisions of this Executive Order will terminate on June 30, 1995.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 19th day of September 1994.

Governor of California

ATTEST:

Acting Secretary of State
